KENTUCKY MILITARY INSTITUTE.

REHOBOTH, by a Board of Visitors appointed by the State and the Superintendent.

T. P. ALLEN, Executive Instructor.

The course of study is that usually taught in the best schools, with the addition of Moral, Aesthetic and Practical Engineering.

The buildings of the Institute will be entirely refitted, and the grounds prepared for the opening of the coming fall term, which will render the Institute entirely unequalled in regard to health, convenience, and opportunities for residence, and already in thorough preparation for the reception of students.

The annual term will open on the second Monday in September, 1853. Tuition charge $10 per semi-annual session, payable for $2 extra, a portion of which will be paid at the first of the term.

Admission to the Institute, $100, and tuition at $10 per month.
